

Nurse Managers

“Achieving Excellence in a Patient-First Environment.”

Join The Reading Hospital and Medical Center on our beautiful 36-acre campus nestled in suburban West Reading. We're closer than you think — less than an hour from Allentown, Lancaster and King of Prussia.

As a Nurse Manager, you will ensure the provision of nursing care services in collaboration with other health professionals. You will have 24/7 accountability for planning and comprehensive operations of assigned department. You must be able to implement sound business and human resource management plans, as well as build and maintain strong relationships between staff and physicians.

Emergency Dept. - We're the most active ED in Pennsylvania, so you can imagine the sheer diversity of acuity and diagnoses. Equipped with state-of-the-art technology, our nurses possess advanced skills in an environment that aggressively promotes ED certification as they benefit from rotating among Fast Track, Pediatrics, Acute Care, Clinical Decision Unit and Chest Pain Service, and Level II Trauma.

Mother Baby Unit - This unit features 24 maternal and 20 newborn beds and focuses on both maternal and newborn care, which is an essential segment of our busy Obstetrical service that annually delivers 3,700 infants. The Reading Hospital Beginnings Maternity Center physicians and nurses have achieved the highest ranking in patient satisfaction scores for clinical expertise, friendliness and attention to personal needs when compared to other United States hospitals.

Qualified applicants must be RNs with BSN (or enrolled). MSN is preferred. Must have at least 5 years' leadership experience. Must demonstrate clinical proficiency in current practice and possess knowledge of regulatory requirements and standards within the field of nursing.

ED position requires a minimum of 3-5 years' ED nursing experience and certification in Emergency Nursing. Trauma experience and pre-hospital experience working with the EMS community preferred. Unit position requires at least 5 years' nursing experience in the area of mother baby nursing.
